DATE OF INFO. [REDACTED] 25X1C

1. There is a police school at Boizenburg (S93) on the Elbe where 3800 (sic) men are being trained.
2. The day is divided as follows:
 - a. Morning
 - 1) Ground maneuvers with machine guns and armored vehicles.
 - 2) Marksmanship with carbine (Kar. 98K); women police participate in this training.
 - 3) Outside instruction in terrain appreciation and reconnaissance to induce familiarity with the terrain.
 - b. Afternoon

All afternoon instruction takes place inside the barracks.
3. The police receive military drill training exclusively and are frequently engaged in night training activities. They seldom leave the barracks other than for training.
4. Entry into the barracks is carefully checked and is impossible without an attendance card (Lehrgangsausweis).
